

 headin' down south to the land of the pines thumbin' (hitchhiking) my way into North Carolina staring up the road and I pray to God I see headlights

I made it (arrived) down the coast in 17 hours pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers and I'm hopin' for Raleigh

I can see my baby (lover) tonight so ! rock me mama like a wagon wheel

! rock me mama any way you feel

hey (hello) mama ! rock me

! [^]rock me mama like the wind and the rain

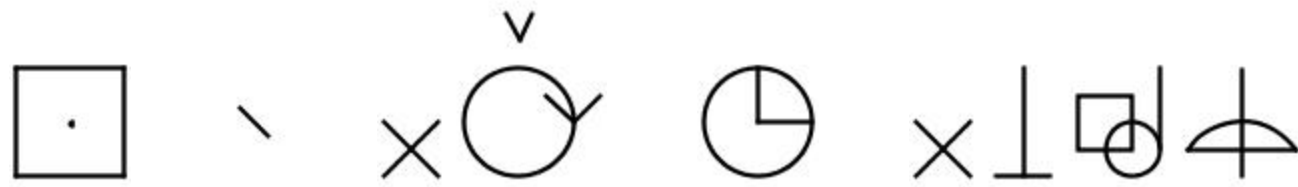

! [^]rock me mama like a ^vsouthbound train

runnin' from the cold up in New England

I was born to be a fiddler in an old time string band my baby (lover) plays the guitar

I pick a banjo now

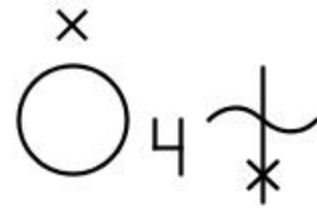

oh

north (northern) country

winters

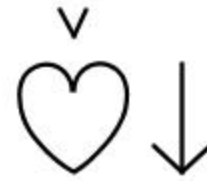

keep (continue)

a getting (causing) me

down (sad)

lost

my money playin'

poker

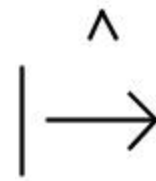

so

had to (needed)

leave

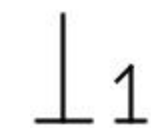

town

but I ain't turning back to living that old life no more

! rock me mama like a southbound train

walkin' through the south outta Roanoke

I caught (received attention) a trucker outta Philly (Philadelphia) had (smoked) a nice long toke but he's a headin' west from the Cumberland Gap (tunnel) to Johnson City Tennessee

I gotta (must) get a move on (go) before the sun (sunset)

I hear my baby (lover) callin' my name and I know that she's the only one and if die in Raleigh at least I will die free
